

Cornerstone Family Services, LLC is a group of down-to-earth therapists that enjoy joining our clients on their individual journey. We specialize in working with adolescents, families, anxiety disorders, and trauma survivors. We strive to welcome folks in a comfortable environment. No high-backed leather chairs here... just comfy sofas with a never ending supply of hot tea! Conveniently located in East Cobb with easy access from Roswell, Marietta, Woodstock, & Kennesaw. We value the trust you've put in us and are honored to partner with you in helping others. Thank you! You can find more in depth biographies of our therapists at www.cornerstonefamilyservices.com

Shala Nicely, LAPC

Shala is passionate about helping adults and adolescents take back their lives from OCD and related anxiety disorders. She uses a cognitive behavioral therapy approach and has specialized training in exposure and response prevention therapy. She is a member of the Association for Behavioral and Cognitive Therapists, the Anxiety and Depression Association of America, and the International OCD Foundation. She is the co-founder of OCD Georgia. Shala received her MS from Mercer University and her MBA from Emory. Shala is under the supervision and direction of Jennifer Vann, LMFT.

Jennifer Vann, LMFT Director of Services

Jennifer specializes in working with adolescents, young adults and whole family systems. She has specialty training in the field of Marriage and Family Therapy and uses a combination of systems theory and psychodynamic principles to help clients look beyond the patterns of their behaviors and relationships to explore core identity issues. Jennifer works with adolescents to help them address the plethora of issues that students face while discovering who they are in this world. She also has works with adolescents with High Functioning Autism/Aspergers, supporting students and families as they navigate the social complexities of the teen years. Jennifer also provides supervision to trainees who seek to learn more about family systems in their case work.

Candy Rogers, LPC, ACS

Candy specializes in therapy for individuals, families and couples. She has over 10 years of experience working with addiction. As a graduate of Argosy University she has specialized training in addiction recovery, couples and marital counseling, conflict resolution, communication, depression, life transitions and anger management. She engages in a reality-based, solution focused approach to therapy and believes the more skills one has, the more successfully they can navigate life's twists and turns.

Therese Wyatt, LAPC

Therese enjoys working with adolescents, young adults and women struggling with anxiety, depression, and trauma. She believes humans were made to be in relationship and believes many mental health and emotional issues can be repaired by working to make those relationships more healthy. She takes a holistic approach to counseling integrating the physical, emotional and spiritual aspects of a client's life. Therese is also trained in equine assisted therapy. Therese received her MS from Mercer University. Therese is under the direction and supervision of Jennifer Vann, LMFT.

Amelia Tuttle, LAMFT

A graduate of UGA and Purdue University Amelia works with couples, families, and adolescents. She collaborates with her clients to help reshape their story into a healing one. Amelia enjoys working with anxiety, depression, and couples counseling. She has years of experience working with at-risk youth and their family systems. Amelia is under the direction of Jennifer Vann, LMFT.